6. [redacted] (OGC) met with Mr. Charles Johnson on the staff of the House Committee on Post Office and Civil Service to review a number of pending personnel bills. Johnson indicated that H. R. 1870, relating to the suspension of employees in the interest of national security, was under active consideration by the Committee and would be reported out next week. This bill could affect the Director's authority under section 102(c) of the National Security Act, and appropriate correspondence to the Committee is being prepared for the Director's signature. See Memorandum for the Record for full details.
